

SENATOR LUEDTKE: Mr. President, I move that LB7 be advanced to E & R.

SPEAKER: Clerk will read the title Senator.

CLERK: Read LB7

SPEAKER: Senator Luedtke.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: Mr. President, I move the adoption of the committee amendments.

SPEAKER: Senator Luedtke, have those committee amendments been printed in the Journal or what?

SENATOR LUEDTKE: Yes, yes, they have.

SPEAKER: Do you want to explain them in lieu of the Clerk reading them.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: Yes, in so doing I would like to explain that this is actually a revisors bill which merely corrected an error that was brought about when LB1032 which was so illuminus was passed a couple of years ago which amended 11-or 119 on the bonds of the associate county judges was merely an it was an amendment to clarify the bonding provisions under that act and there was some question to make sure that we were not completely changing all of the bonding provisions for county officials and that is why the amendment was brought in, it was provided that when a county clerk authorized the duties of the county officers the minimum bond shall be $2,000 this was requested to be included because it was the only section open to deal with the county clerks bonds so we have used this particular bill to take care of that amendment so that we would not have to introduce another bill. That was the only reason for that amendment.

SPEAKER: Is there any further explanation Senator Luedtke of these amendments? Any discussion of the amendments? How many amendments are there Senator?

SENATOR LUEDTKE: One Mr. President.

SPEAKER: Alright now are you ready for the question on the adoption of the amendments to the committee bill? All those in favor of adopting the amendments say aye, those opposed say no. Amendment is adopted. Senator Luedtke.

SENATOR Luedtke; Mr. President, I am now...I have actually explained the bill.....

SPEAKER: Senator Carpenter has a question.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Mr. President, it really isn't a question. I presume that this bill is one of the those bills that we all get to correct some minor defect. But I think that we ought to look at this bill from the stand point of whether or not we ought to go further than the committee went on. Now lets go down for example on line 25 of the second page. It says that each county attorney in the sum of not less than $1,000 not less, now I think that this is rather ridiculous and it is true of many other areas the same bill. Now a county attorney is probably in my judgment at least, the one of the most if not the most important offices in the county. It seems to me without casting anything on any county attorney that a $1,000 bond and bear in mind that is all the county commissioner is going to put on is what the minimum is. I think that this thing ought to be raised to $50,000. Now these things may not happen but they are a sort of a hedge to be sure that those
